

Havugimana Phelemon – Dance Artist

Havugimana Phelemon began his dance journey in 2017 with Mindleaps, an organization dedicated to using dance as a tool for emotional healing and transformational change among vulnerable youth. Through this experience, Phelemon discovered his passion and talent for dance, developing skills in both ballet and contemporary styles.

He has performed on prominent stages, including the annual Ubumuntu Art Festival in Kigali and at the Institut Français, showcasing his dedication and artistic growth. Driven by a deep commitment to his craft, Phelemon aspires to become a professional dancer and to use his journey and expertise to inspire and empower future generations.
