

Artist Profile – Havugimana Phillemon*

Discipline: Contemporary Dance

Based in: Kigali, Rwanda

Years Active: 9+

Languages: Kinyarwanda, English

Havugimana Phillemon is a Rwandan contemporary dancer and creative mover who began his journey with MindLeaps at the age of 8. With over nine years of training and performance, he has built a powerful artistic identity rooted in storytelling, discipline, and emotional expression.

Phillemon has appeared on major stages such as the Institut Français du Rwanda, Ubumuntu Arts Festival, commemoration Rwanda 30 festival Elena and Kigali Breaking Festival, using dance to explore themes like mental health, youth identity, and healing.

In 2025, he is working on Voices Through Movement, a choreography focused on youth mental health. His vision is to become an international artist, blending performance and mentorship to inspire and elevate the next generation of dancers in Rwanda.

Artistic Vision To give movement a voice one that speaks pain, hope, and transformation.
